

I have the right to receive treatment at a GP practice in Scotland. I can find out where my nearest GP practice is by phoning NHS Inform on 0800 22 44 88.

When I register at a GP practice:

- I do not need a fixed address
- my immigration status does not matter, and
- I do not need ID, but if I have any I should take it with me.

I have the right to receive treatment at a GP practice in Scotland. I can find out where my nearest GP practice is by phoning NHS Inform on 0800 22 44 88.

When I register at a GP practice:

- I do not need a fixed address
- my immigration status does not matter, and
- I do not need ID, but if I have any I should take it with me.

I have the right to receive treatment at a GP practice in Scotland.

I may need help with:

- filling in forms
- reading and understanding leaflets and letters, and
- interpretation and translation services.

To get help raising concerns about NHS services in Scotland, I can phone the Patient Advice and Support Service for free on 0800 917 2127.

I have the right to receive treatment at a GP practice in Scotland.

I may need help with:

- filling in forms
- reading and understanding leaflets and letters, and
- interpretation and translation services.

To get help raising concerns about NHS services in Scotland, I can phone the Patient Advice and Support Service for free on 0800 917 2127.